Company Advisors are business professionals who serve as mentors to a group of 10-12 high school students called a "company." In just one week, Company Advisors learn to coach, influence, delegate, empower, and sharpen leadership skills in a way that our participants describe as life-changing. You will guide students to work as a team, run a company, and make real-world decisions. You learn first-hand how to lead a diverse team to success.

Advisors are typically mid-level or senior-level managers, executives, small business owners or independent agents. This role is ideal for professionals who possess strong leadership, communication and teambuilding skills. Beyond business savvy, OBW values enthusiasm, discretion, patience, compassion and an inclusive disposition.
